COLLECTS FOR THE FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Almighty God, give us grace to cast away the works of darkness and to put on the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which your Son Jesus Christ came to us in great humility; that on the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious majesty to judge the living and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal; through him who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Almighty God,
as your kingdom dawns,
turn us from the darkness of sin
to the light of holiness,
that we may be ready to meet you
in our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.
Amen

POST COMMUNION PRAYER FOR THE FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

O Lord our God,
make us watchful and keep us faithful
as we await the coming of your Son our Lord;
that, when he shall appear,
he may not find us sleeping in sin
but active in his service
and joyful in his praise;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

READINGS FOR THE FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

THE WORD OF GOD

You may notice that we do not always use all the readings in our Sunday service – we include them in the bulletin for you to reflect upon them throughout the forthcoming week.

JEREMIAH 33:14-16

The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will fulfil the promise I made to the house of Israel and the house of Judah.

In those days and at that time I will cause a righteous Branch to spring up for David; and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the land.

In those days Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will live in safety.

And this is the name by which it will be called: 'The LORD is our righteousness.'

PSALM 25:1 – 9

¹ To you, O Lord, I lift up my soul;
O my God, in you I trust; ♦
let me not be put to shame;
let not my enemies triumph over me.

² Let none who look to you be put to shame, ♦
but let the treacherous be shamed and frustrated.

³ Make me to know your ways, O Lord, ♦
and teach me your paths.

⁴ Lead me in your truth and teach me, ♦
for you are the God of my salvation;
for you have I hoped all the day long.

⁵ Remember, Lord, your compassion and love, ♦
for they are from everlasting.

⁶ Remember not the sins of my youth or my transgressions, ♦
but think on me in your goodness, O Lord,
according to your steadfast love.

⁷ Gracious and upright is the Lord; ♦
therefore shall he teach sinners in the way.

⁸ He will guide the humble in doing right
and teach his way to the lowly.

⁹ All the paths of the Lord are mercy and truth ♦ to those who keep his covenant and his testimonies.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning is now,
and shall be for ever. Amen

1 THESSALONIANS 3:9-END

How can we thank God enough for you in return for all the joy that we feel before our God because of you? Night and day we pray most earnestly that we may see you face to face and restore whatever is lacking in your faith.

Now may our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus direct our way to you. And may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, just as we abound in love for you. And may he so strengthen your hearts in holiness that you may be blameless before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

'There will be signs in the sun, the moon, and the stars, and on the earth distress among nations confused by the roaring of the sea and the waves. People will faint from fear and foreboding of what is coming upon the world, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. Then they will see "the Son of Man coming in a cloud" with power and great glory. Now when these things begin to take place, stand up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near.'

Then he told them a parable: 'Look at the fig tree and all the trees; as soon as they sprout leaves you can see for yourselves and know that summer is already near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that the kingdom of God is near. Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.'

'Be on guard so that your hearts are not weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and the worries of this life, and that day does not catch you unexpectedly, like a trap. For it will come upon all who live on the face of the whole earth. Be alert at all times, praying that you may have the strength to escape all these things that will take place, and to stand before the Son of Man.'

ADVENT – THE BEGINNING OF A NEW CHURCH YEAR...

This Sunday we light the first candle in our Advent Wreath and begin the journey toward Christmas – the celebration of the birth of Jesus.

Before we arrive at Christmas though we spend these four Sundays in Advent thinking about the gift that Jesus is to us – Light in the darkness; and taking a look at ourselves to make sure that all is well with our soul...

Advent is divided up into two parts – the first part we think about Jesus promise to return as king of the world and to bring about the kingdom of heaven on earth; the second half after 16th December, we prepare for the joy of the incarnation – Jesus coming to us as the babe of Bethlehem.

Advent, just like Lent, is a penitential season – a spiritual ‘spring clean’ just as we like to get our homes ready for the big celebration on Christmas Day, this is the opportunity to not only make sure we are ready to receive the Christ child into our hearts but that we are ready to welcome Jesus when he comes again.

So, the four candles of Advent, the first of which will be lit today – these represent all the people throughout Holy Scripture who were told to prepare for the coming of the Christ – God’s Son, they also remind us of promises God made to these folk – the promise that the Christ child would bring with him Hope, Peace, Joy and Love.

The St Francis Advent Wreath and the church clothed in purple – the colour of Advent.

ST FRANCIS NEWS...

Sad to say that we are no longer able to use the gas cooker in the kitchen here at St Francis.

A recent gas check has revealed that the gas installation to the cooker does not meet newly introduced safety regulations.

At the PCC meeting held on Thursday evening it was reluctantly decided that we are not in a position to meet the cost of bringing the gas installation up to the legally required standard at this time and so the cooker has been disconnected and the gas supply capped off.

It is hoped that a working group will be formed in the new year that will look at the kitchen and the hall and propose plans for refurbishment of both these spaces for future church and community use.
